About Princes Foods

Princes Foods is one of the world's leading supplier of food and drink products. With a diverse portfolio of products including many household names, the company supplies to major supermarkets across the world. Owned by the Mitsubishi Group since 1989 the company continues to grow both organically and through acquisition.

Princes Food brands include: Napolina, Flora, Batchelors, Branston, Aqua Pura, Crosse & Blackwell, Cookeen and Shippams. It's own branded products are well established household names across the world.

The company's vision is to be the first choice supplier of food and drink products to all our retail, wholesale and industrial customers across the UK, Europe and beyond. They are committed to producing quality branded and customer own brand products that deliver innovation and convenience to meet changing consumer needs.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE VISIT

The site at Belvedere is where Princes blends and bottles their customers own-brand products. These products include olive oils, balsamic vinegar and speciality oils. The products are processed and bottled in glass bottles, PET bottles, bulk containers and tins.

Lean and continuous improvement has been applied across the site to help them deliver improved value for their customers. On the visit you will see excellent visual management, workplace organisation and how they have used lean tools to drive cost reduction and process improvements.

You will also see how Princes have achieved excellent levels of engagement through training and communication to support their CI activities.
