About Vale & the Clydach Refinery

The Vale Clydach Refinery located near Swansea in South Wales, is one of Europe's largest nickel refineries, producing high purity nickel pellet and powder products for specialist applications such as high nickel alloys, batteries, nickel plating and automotive components.

They supply over 280 customers in over 30 countries worldwide (Europe, Asia and USA). Their Continuous Improvement (CI) approach has been based around specific tools: Standard Work, 5S, TPM, OEE, QCO and Six Sigma.

Key to their success has been engaging their employees to contribute improvement ideas and participate in their implementation.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE VISIT

The site is justly proud of their environmental record and will share with visitor's key initiatives and the results they have achieved.

Continuous Improvement Journey to Shingo Silver medallion win

The site has been on a CI & Operational Excellence journey since 2008 and are proud of their achievements. Employees have been trained in CI tools such as problem solving and are encouraged to apply this learning in their work team. Key to their success has been engaging their employees to contribute improvement ideas and participate in their implementation. The visit will be an opportunity for them to share these experiences and what they have learnt along the way, through to being awarded the Shingo Silver medallion for Operational Excellence in January 2014.
